GRADUATION

JUNE 4, 1995

"I do not search in emptiness and need, but in increasing fullness and desire. Emptiness seeks any voice to fill a void, any face to dispel darkness. Emptiness brings crowds and shadows easy to replace. Fullness brings a friend, unique, irreplaceable. I am not as empty as I was. There are the wind and the ocean, books and music, strength and joys within, and the night."

-James Kavanugh

I could not have made it through these past four years without the love and support of my parents, my family, and my friends. I am truly fortunate to have so many wonderful people in my life. I hope someday they will know the depth of my love and gratitude.

-Diane C. Clawson, D.O.

THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU!

Special thanks to the people pictured above for making the production of Synopsis 1995 a reality. Without these people and several others who are not shown above, my life this past year would have been even more hectic and crazy than it already was. Despite the occasional problems that arose, we were able to work together and develop unforgettable memories. Thanks most of all for always being there to lend a helping hand or an ear to listen to me stress out. I think our final product speaks for itself.

I also would like to thank the Class of 1995 for their support and understanding during the year and more importantly, for their appreciative words once the yearbook was handed out. All the time and effort was worth it just to see how much the yearbook was enjoyed and hopefully will be for years to come. Best wishes for success in the years ahead!!!
